ABOLISH SHINTOISM, U.S. ORDERS JAPAN

JAILED IN REVOLT — Jose Maria Cantilo, above, Socialist Party leader and former Argentine foreign minister, is reported imprisoned by his country's military government in a sweeping move to round up all leaders of revolt. Buenos Aires reports said 72 other prominent persons were being held incommunicado.

Gen. Arturo Rawson, above, former Argentine president, and Gen. Oswaldo Martin were arrested in Cordoba 400 miles from Buenos Aires, after their unsuccessful attempt to overthrow the regime of President, Gen. Edelmiro Farrel, and "strong man" Col. Juan Peron, the vice president. General Rawson led an abortive revolution against President Ramon S. Castillo in 1943.

New Racing Firm Buys For $750,000 Tracks, Building

VANCOUVER (CP)—A company which includes Bing Crosby, Pat O'Brien and C. S. Howard as directors has purchased Lansdowne and Brighouse race tracks in suburban Vancouver and a downtown Vancouver building, it was announced today.

The British Columbia Turf and Country Club Ltd., a recently-incorporated firm, purchased the two tracks, each a mile long, and the Randally Building for $750,000.

The building was bought from Sam Randall, president of the Vancouver Thoroughbred Racing Association, which has conducted horse racing in Vancouver and Victoria.

Associated with Mr. Crosby, Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Howard are other California sportsmen and businessmen.

B-29 Crewmen Rescued From Sea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Coast Guard reported today some of the crew of the B-29 bomber which plunged into the ocean off the California coast had been rescued.

The bomber, returning from the western Pacific plunged into the ocean about 300 miles off the Pacific coast at 5 a.m. today. Normal passenger and crew load is 20 men. The field had no further particulars.

Navy search planes located the B-29 men and surface ships were dispatched to the rescue.

The field announced 12 survivors had been picked up and four others were "spotted as safe" by the air and sea patrol. Officials did not know definitely how many were aboard the plane, but the search was continuing for possible other survivors.

'Missing' Raider Returns; Dad Faints

MERRITTON, Ont. (CP) — Julian Vincent fainted when his son, believed killed on the Dieppe raid of August, 1942, walked into his room at a hotel here Friday.

The father said his son, Marcelle, had been captured by the Germans but records had him listed as missing and believed killed. The parent, who lived at Toronto at the time of the raid, said he lost hope, became despondent over the loss of his son and moved to Merritton.

It was only by chance Marcelle learned of his father's new address. Then he walked in unannounced.

Lumber Walkout Delayed In U.S.

PORTLAND, Ore (AP) — Threat of C.I.O. strike which, added to a walkout of 62,000 A.F.L. workers, would completely paralyze the northwest lumber industry was delayed again today with negotiations recessed until Thursday.

Authorized by a strike vote among 40,000 workers, a C.I.O. International Woodworkers of America tie-up was averted earlier when federal conciliators arranged sessions between employers and union men.

C.I.O. demands for a flat 25-cent-hourly wage boost will be discussed further next week.

Vancouver Faces Shipping Tie-up As Strike Looms

VANCOUVER (CP) — Canadian Congress of Labor officials today began an investigation of charges of intimidation made by the Radio Officers Union (CLO.) against Park Steamships Ltd., which threatened to tie up sailings out of port of Vancouver.

Park Steamships Ltd. is a crown company.

Daniel O'Brien, C.C.L. regional director, received reports from the Radio Officers' Union the company is reducing radio personnel from three men to one on every ship for peacetime operations.

The radio men claim they have been intimidated by the officials of the company, who "are trying to make them do clerical work." The unionists say this is a contravention of regulations governing such matters.

Germans Printed Millions Of Notes To Disrupt Economy

LONDON (CP) — A detailed account of how the Germans used slave labor in gigantic production of forged foreign currency, was placed today in the hands of the United Nations War Crimes Commission.

Apparently, hoping to disrupt enemy economy, the Germans turned out millions of pounds in spurious British sterling notes.

Special teams of British-American army experts reported that at a single concentration camp in the Freising area they found 23 cases containing forged notes amounting to 26,000,000 sterling pounds, or approximately $108,000,000.

From former prisoners the investigators learned the Germans kept seven printing and two photographic machines busy printing both pound notes and forged Slovakian bonds. The Elite Guard selected 28 printers and designers from camp prisoners and assigned them to the work.

Collapse of Bamboo Hut Killed Eight Canadians

"Soon your ashes will be in a box like this,"

Sgmn. Howard Naylor, former Jap prisoner-of-war who returned to Victoria Friday, told how this was a favorite remark by camp guards to the Canadian captured at Hongkong.

The 23-year-old Victoria soldier who joined up Sept. 11, 1939, said all Canadians who died in prison were cremated. The Japs would place their ashes in cardboard boxes which they would delight in showing to the Hongkong survivors.

Worst episode witnessed by Sgmn. Naylor was the collapse of a flimsy bamboo hut which caused the death of eight Canadians. This happened at the camp where he was held on Niigata, north of Honhu. The tragedy occurred New Year's morning, 1944.

Sgmn. Naylor said that of 300 Canadians in the camp 79 died of starvation or pneumonia. Worst winter was that of 1943-44, after he was moved from Hongkong to the Jap home islands.

At Niigarta he worked in a coal yards carrying coal in baskets destined for Jap industries. He considered himself lucky not to have even been seriously ill during the four years he was held prisoner.

He said that throughout this time the Canadians never doubted that they would be rescued. Twice they saw pursuit planes from an American carrier and watched as their Jap guards "hollered and shrieked."

TO MAKE LIFE MISERABLE

Asked about the treatment of the Canadians, he replied "it was mostly little things the Japs did to make life miserable."

He recalled how the prisoners were forced to salute all Japs in uniform. If they failed to do this they were slapped.

When they first went to the coal mine they were ordered to work on a trestle without their shoes. Many Canadians died as the result of poisoning caused by cuts in their feet.

Sigmn. Naylor said that 50 pounds of meat a week would be delivered to a camp of 700. Rice and beans were the chief foods. Greatest delicacy consisted of grasshoppers cooked in soya sauce.

"The Americans," he said, "staged the biggest celebration we've ever seen after V-J Day. They flew over in their B-29's and saluted us in the camps. They also dropped food, medicine, clothing, cigarettes and gum. In fact I've never seen so many cigarettes or so much gum in all my life."

Sigmn. Naylor told his story at Gordon Head camp, wearing an American uniform dropped from a B-29 over the Niigata camp. He crossed the Pacific aboard the Ss. Ozark, which docked at San Francisco earlier this week.

2,500 More May Vote In Oct. 25 Election

More than 2,500 more Victorians have been enfranchised for the Oct. 25 provincial general election than were entitled to vote in 1941 general poll.

W. K. Wiper, who has charge of preparing the voters' lists for Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt, said today 25,910 Victorians may vote this month. In 1941 23,266 were enfranchised.

Numbers of names on the voters' lists for the other Greater Victoria ridings with the 1941 figures in brackets follow: Oak Bay 7,529 (6,149), Esquimalt 6,459 (5,901), Saanich 12,976 (11,511).

Drastic Measure Will Strip Cult Of State Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has decided to abolish Shintoism as a state religion in Japan, it was officially disclosed tonight.

This measure, one of the most drastic yet determined in remaking Japan into a peaceful country, will not effect Shintoism "insofar as it is a religion of individual Japanese," the announcement said.

However, the cult is to lose its government support, its special taxes, its place in the schools of Japan and its other official prerogatives.

The policy was announced by John Carter Vincent, chief of Far Eastern affairs at the State Department, who said in a broadcast all those special privileges which Shintoism had as a state religion are "to be done away with." The state religion has been regarded as one of the powerful controls which Japan's militarist leaders exercised over their people.

MacArthur Ends Military Censorship

TOKYO (AP)—General MacArthur today terminated military press censorship for all Allied correspondents, maintaining only his censorship of the Japanese press and radio.

Authorization to lift or to retain Allied press censorship in Japan and Korea at his discretion was received from the war department, a headquarters announcement said. Its termination was made effective immediately.

The War Department message pointed out, however, that by accepting accreditation to the army, correspondents were obligated to continue to submit all "doubtful material," even after formal military censorship had ended.

Russia Recalls Deputy In Japan

LONDON (AP)—The Moscow radio said tonight Lt.-Gen. Kuzma N. Derevyanko, Russian military representative in Japan, had returned to Moscow on a summons "by the Soviet government."

Derevyanko headed Russia's 16th-man delegation at the ceremonial surrender of Japan conducted by Gen. MacArthur aboard te U.S. battleship Missouri Sept. 2. He signed the surrender instrument on behalf of the Soviet Union.

A Russian demand for a four-power agency to govern Japan was reported by the Moscow radio Wednesday to have been presented James F. Byrnes, U.S. Secretary of State, before the break-up of the Foreign Ministers' conference in London.

World Series Play By Play

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago — Play-by-play description of the fourth game of the World Series between Detroit Tigers and Chicago Cubs, follows:

FIRST INNING

Tigers — Webb bounced out, Hack to Cavarretta, after working the count to 2-2. Mayo lined out to Pafko, who made a fine running catch not far behind second base. Cramer went out, Prim to Cavarretta.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs — Hack went out, Webb to York, the Tigers' first baseman picking the throw out of the dirt. Johnson smashed a grounder to York and was out, York unassisted. Lowrey lined out to Cullenbine in short right.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

SECOND INNING

Tigers—Greenberg worked the count to 2 and 2 and then struck out, swinging hard as the crowd roared. Cullenbine popped up to Cavarretta near first base. York was an easy out, Johnson to Cavarretta.

No runs no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs—Cavarretta was called out on strikes as he watched Trout's curve cut an outside corner. York made a nice knockdown of Pafko's smash and recovered the ball to toss to Trout for the out. Nicholson struck out, swinging.

No runs, no hits no errors, none left.

THIRD INNING

Tigers — Outlaw rapped to Hughes, who threw him out at first. Lowrey took Richards' long fly in left field. Trout hit a terrific liner right into Hack's outstretched glove.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs — Livingston made the first hit of the game, a clean single into left centrefield which was handled by Greenberg. Hughes attempted to sacrifice and forced Livingston at second, Trout to Webb. Prim sacrificed Hughes to second, the play going from York to Mayo. Outlaw took Hack's grounder and threw him out at first.

FOURTH INNING

Cubs—Johnson lined a single into centre field. Lowrey singled to right, Johnson being held at second by Cullenbine's quick throw. Cavaretta went to the full count and then went down swinging in at a very low pitch Mayo took Pafko's roller and threw him out at first, Johnson going to third and Lowrey to second. For some reason Mayo made no attempt to get a double play. Nicholson struck out, swinging at a fast ball.

No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

Tigers — Webb bounced out, Hack to Cavaretta. Mayo reached the full count and then walked, the first Tiger to reach first in the game. Cramer drove a single into right field on the first pitch, Mayo holding up at second. Greenberg singled to left, scoring Mayo and sending Cramer to second. Cullenbine smashed a double down the left field line, scoring Cramer and sending Greenberg to third. Prim was replaced on the Cubs' mound by the veteran Paul Derringer. York was purposely passed, filling the bases. Outlaw forced York at second, Johnson to Hughes, Greenberg scoring on the play and Cullenbine taking third. Richards drove a single to centre, scoring Cullenbine and sending Outlaw to second. Trout forced Richards at second, Hughes to Johnson.

Four runs, four hits, no errors, two left.

FIFTH INNING

Tigers—Webb was called out on strikes. Mayo lofted to Lowrey in left. Cramer drove a single to right centre and went to second when Nicholson let the ball get through him for the first Chicago error of the series. Greenberg worked Derringer for a walk. Cullenbine went out to Cavarretta, unassisted.

No runs, one hit, one error, two left.

Cubs—The sun finally was out strong as the Cubs came to bat. Livingston flied out to Cramer in right centre, the Tiger veteran making a good one-handed catch after losing the ball in the sun. Hughes walked on six pitches. Frank Secory batted for Derringer. Working slowly and carefully, Trout struck Secory out, making him swing at a bad third strike. Hack went out to York, unassisted.

No runs, no hits and no errors.

SIXTH INNING

Tigers—Hy Vandenberg went in to pitch for the Cubs. York flied out to Lowrey deep in left field. Outlaw popped up to Cavarretta. Richard lined out to Hughes at short.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs—Johnson walloped a triple down the right field, the ball rolling to the flagpole. Lowrey hit to Outlaw who, instead of trapping Johnson beteen third and home, threw the batter out at first. York then attempted to catch Johnson going back to third, but overthrew the bag and Johnson raced home. It was an error for York. Cavarretta flied out to Greenberg. Pafko lofted to Cramer. The run was unearned.

One run, one hit, one error, none left.

SEVENTH INNING

Tigers—Trout popped a high one up to Hughes, who took it far back on the grass. Cavarreta knocked down Webb's hard drive and tossed to Vandenberg for the putout. Hughes threw out Mayo.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs—Trout grabbed Nicholson's slow roller and threw him out at first. Cramer ran far over into right field to take Livingston's fly. Heinz Becker batted for Hughes and singled into left field. Len Merullo ran for Becker. Paul Gillespie batted for Vandenberg and went out, York to Trout, who covered first.

EIGHTH INNING

Tigers—Paul Erickson went in to pitch for the Cubs and Merullo went to shortstop. Cramer popped out to Merullo. Greenberg fanned, swinging. Cullenbine walked. Johnson threw out York on an easy roller.

Cubs—Hack went out Webb to York. Webb also threw out Johnson. Lowrey struck out.

NINTH INNING

Tigers—Outlaw drove a single into left field. Richards struck out on three pitches. Trout beat out a smash to third base that Hack could not hold. Outlaw went to third on a passed ball. Outlaw was caught in a rundown and thrown out from Livingston to Hack. Webb filed out to Nicholson in right.

No runs, two hits, no errors, one left.

Cubs—Cavaretta flied out to Cramer in deep centre field. Outlaw made a fine stop of Pafko's grounder and threw him out at first. Nicholson fouled out to Richards.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

118 Candidates For Manitoba House

WINNIPEG (CP)—Manitoba was prepared today for a full-scale election campaign following Friday's nomination deadline when seven supporters of Premier Stuart Garson's Coalition administration were elected to the province's Legislature by acclamation.

Of 118 candidates running for the remaining 48 civilian seats in the Assembly, 58 are supporters of the union government.

The C.C.F. has 41 candidates, including two Independent followers, nominated to contest the province's 39 constituencies in the balloting Oct. 15.

The Labor Progressive Party, second largest opposition group, had 13 nominees.

Meat Plants Told To Rush Hogs

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Meat Board has instructed packing plants to rush to seaboard 90 per cent of all hogs slaughtered from now until Oct. 20.

The meat board said Friday unless it appropriated nine out of 10 hogs slaughtered in exporting plants from today until Oct. 20, October bacon shipments to Britain would probably not exceed 11,000 tons.

Basic Screw Threads Agreed On By Nations

OTTAWA (CP)—The two-week conference on unification of engineering standards concluded today with a final session coordinating reports of various technical committees, described in a statement issued Friday as having reached "a solid basis of agreement."

The conference was sponsored by the combined Production and Resources Board of Canada, Britain and the U.S., in an effort to iron out technical differences in engineering practice.

Most far-reaching in its implications is the agreement on specifications for a basic screw thread form which may provide a uniform standard for all countries using the inch system of measurement.

Burns Fatal To Boy

Two-year-old Richard Soucy died Friday of burns he received when a gasoline lamp exploded and destroyed the Soucy home at McBride, B.C., Provincial Police were informed.

His mother, Mrs. Rose Soucy, is in hospital with serious burns. Her other son, five-year-old Gary, was burned but is not in a serious condition.

Commons Next Week May Discuss Strength of Peacetime Forces

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada's parliamentary representatives, vitally interested in the place the Dominion will take in the postwar line-up of the world's nations, may be given details of the government's plans for her peacetime navy and army when they meet again next Tuesday.

Air Minister Gibson, who told the House Thursday that tentative postwar air force plans call for a force of between 15,000 and 20,000 said Friday Defence Minister Abbott will be prepared to give details on the navy and army at the next sitting.

Veterans' Minister Mackenzie, acting House leader, said Mr. Abbott would take the floor after a bill ratifying the setting up of a world food and agriculture organization had been advanced.

As a result of preliminary remarks made Tuesday by Mr. Abbott, there has been speculation that the size of the permanent postwar navy will be about 10,000 men and 20 ships.

Discussion on the air force estimates brought no new details about the postwar organization to light. Col. Gibson said all plans were on a tentative basis until international and regional security commitments were known.

BUDGET FRIDAY

Before the House got down to the estimates, Finance Minister Ilsley disclosed that he will bring down next Friday the budget for the 1945-46 fiscal year. Mr. Ilsley also announced that the Prices Board is taking steps to revise the coupon values of most cooked and some uncooked meats. On the assumption that these meats could not be ration free, this appeared the most acceptable alternative to all interested sections of the trade," he said.

Taking part in the Commons discussion were Hon. C. G. Power, former Air Minister; John Bracken, national Progressive Conservative leader; M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader; John H. Blackmore, acting Social Credit House leader; Reconstruction Minister Howe; Works Minister Fournier, John Diefenbaker, P.C., Lake Centre, Sask., and Clarence Gillis, C.C.F., Cape Breton South.

Mr. Bracken and Mr. Coldwell urged the government return to the prewar practice of limiting expenditures by having specified amounts voted for each department. These amounts could not be exceeded without passage of a royal warrant.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Mr. Ilsley gave notice of motion of a bill authorizing payment not exceeding $25,000,000 for provision of paid-up capital in connection with the incorporation of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

This corporation, forecast in the Throne speech Sept. 6 will operate the Natioal Housing Act by providing discounting facilities for loan and mortgage companies and will make available funds appropriated under the National Housing Act.

Reconstruction Minister Howe assured the House there was no priority on building materials in favor of Wartime Housing Ltd. or anyone else. He was answering a question from Mr. Bracken.

Russian Views On Balkan Treaty-making

LONDON (CP) — A Pravda editorial broadcast by the Moscow radio said today that if France were brought into Balkan treaty-making, similar privileges should be accorded Yugoslavia, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

"What grounds are there to remove Yugoslavia from participation in drawing up peace treaties with Italy and Germany's Balkan ex-satellites, since it is known that Yugoslavia has done more than most other countries to defeat Hitlerite Germany and Fascist Italy?" the editorial asked.

"While agreeing to extend the number of countries invited to take part in drawing up peace treaties, how can one eliminate Poland and Czechoslovakia, whose sacrifices in the struggle against Hitler's aggression are universally known?"

Insurance Plan

REGINA (CP)—The Regina Teachers' Association during a session devoted to business of the professional federation Friday passed unanimously a resolution asking the Saskatchewan government to set up a voluntary life insurance plan at once. Federation executives will give final approval to the resolution before it is sent to the government.

Other resolutions passed by the association ask the federal government to allow teachers to deduct from gross taxable incomes expenses incurred by them in courses which improve their professional qualifications.

5 Prisoners Executed

LONDON (CP)—Five German prisoners of war were hanged today for the murder of a fellow prisoner whom they had "tried" and condemned for deserting the Nazi creed.

The sentences of death were announced Friday night by the War Office.

The men were accused of having tried in a "kangaroo court" Sgt.-Maj. Wolfgang Rosterg, whom they hanged in a Scottish prison camp latrine two days before Christmas last year, a day after his arrival at the camp.

Sleeping Cars Back

VANCOUVER — Canadian National sleeping cars between Vancouver and Kelowna were temporarily returned to service when the train left here Friday evening at 715. Through sleepers from the Okanagan Valley to Vancouver will resume operations today leaving Kelowna at 4.50 this afternoon.

Pelican All White

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP)—A snow white pelican was lassoed at Okanagan Falls, 12 miles south of here, by Dolly Thomas of Penticton this week. The bird measures 95 inches from wing tip to wing tip and has a bill 12 inches long.

Election issues will be discussed over CJVI tonight at 10.15 by Ald. Duncan McTavish, president of the Victoria Conservative Association. **

C.C.F. Would Provide Jobs For 100,000, Winch Tells Rally

A C.C.F. government, if elected at the Oct. 25 provincial general election, would provide 100,000 jobs within the province, Harold Winch, provincial C.C.F. leader, told the opening rally of the C.C.F.'s campaign in Victoria, Friday night.

Speaking with Colin Cameron, former M.L.A. for Comox, from the stage of the Royal Victoria Theatre, Mr. Winch said. "That is the minimum program for the present. It can be done."

Also speaking before the audience, which exceeded 1,000, were the six C.C.F. candidates of the Greater Victoria ridings — Mrs. Claire McAllister, Oak Bay; Martin Neilson, Saanich; Harry Webber, Esquimalt, and Mrs. May Campbell, Fred Bevis and Murray Bryce of Victoria. The collection totaled $342.

The electorate, he said, would decide whether B.C. will be developed in the interests of its 900,000 citizens, or in the interests of a few.

ADMIT DEFEAT

The statement of Works Minister Herbert Anscomb in the Legislature that the province could not do in peacetime what had been done in wartime was, he said, an admission of the Coalition's defeat.

Referring to the C.C.F.'s program, he said: "Everything in that program can be done within provincial jurisdiction — can be done by the provincial government."

"We will pay B.C.'s debt to the veterans," he continued, adding that was something that the Coalition government was not doing. As example, he said, two veterans of this war were now working at the Parliament Buildings here for $65.

If B.C. could pay girls 65 cents to 90 cents per hour, and men $1.25 per hour in war industries, it could pay the same wages for peacetime work.

He said the C.C.F. at the first session of the Legislature in which they held a majority, would introduce measures to provide for a crown company to build homes and for a provincial housing authority.

CHALLENGES PREMIER

Mr. Cameron challenged Premier John Hart and Attorney-General R. L. Maitland, leaders of the Coalition, to deny publically that they had deliberately disfranchised servicemen for fear of the way these men would vote.

"It may be they will change this regulation before Oct. 25," he said. "But this Coalition government is marked for all times as the government which was afraid to face the men who defended this country."

He said the troops in Germany and those who had returned to Canada since Sept. 17 could be enfranchised by order-in-council passed at any time.

The electorate no longer faced a choice of free enterprise or collectivism, he said, but of democratic collectivism or totalitarian collectivism.

Colin Ashdown To Teach In Victoria

Colin Ashdown, English baritone, who was heard by many Victorians this summer as Bumerli in "The Chocolate Soldier" and in other roles in this year's "Theatre Under the Stars" at Vancouver will teach in Victoria.

Particularly interested in choral singing and choral direction, Mr. Ashdown is planning to come over one day a week from Vancouver where he has his own studio, but will come more often if conditions warrant it.

He started his singing career at the age of 8 at St. Saviour's Church, Eastbourne, England, and later became treble soloist at Chester Cathedral under Dr. Joseph Bridge.

Following five years served with the army in World War I, he went into the Royal College of Music in Kensington, from whence he graduated. He started his adult musical career in "The Beggar's Opera," under Sir Nigel Playfair.

Since then he has had experience in oratorio, opera, musical comedy, repertory and broadcasting.

AFTER SIX YEARS

MONDAY WILL MARK THE FIRST Thanksgiving Day Canada has celebrated in peacetime since 1938. During the earlier part of the first week of October in that year the peoples of this and other countries had given themselves over to serious reflections on the implications of Munich. Some were grimly pinning their faith to the document with which Mr. Chamberlain had returned to London from the ancient Bavarian city. Others were far from sure that its contents guaranteed "peace in our time." In these columns we were wondering when the principal dictator would present the real bill for payment. But on this day seven years ago our front page contained not a single item to remind holidaymakers either of what had transpired in Europe a trifle more than a week earlier or what the portents of the future were. On the contrary, prominently displayed was the official announcement from London that the King and Queen would visit Canada in the following spring, while an excellent picture of the arrival here on a short visit of President Roosevelt's mother also occupied a place of honor.

It is not necessary to recapitulate the feelings of Canadians as they went about their various occasions on the six Thanksgiving Days of the war years. To be sure, our people had much throughout that harrowing period for which to be grateful; for at no time were they exposed to the harsh and physical impact of human conflict here at home. And for this alone they could honor the annual festival in the profoundest sense of its meaning. Through every hour of the day and night in all those long and weary months, nevertheless, they were deeply conscious of the price the peoples in Europe and Asia were paying for the moral bankruptcy in statesmanship which marked the interregnum between Nov. 11, 1918, and Sept. 1, 1939. After Dieppe, too, the exploits of the fighting men from this country brought war's realities home to Canada. On this Thanksgiving Day, however, no casualty lists will be pouring into the newspapers. They belong to the past.

But as our people give thanks in this year of grace 1945—and Canadians have more cause for gratitude than some seem to realize—they are confronted with front page reminders of industrial disputes and other manifestations of unrest in striking contrast to the news display of seven years ago to which we have referred. Nor is there much consolation to be extracted from the paradox for which a condition of prosperity is largely responsible—strikes and threats of strikes at a time when money is more plentiful than ever before in the nation's history. This is the new challenge to our own and all the peoples of this continent. By the manner in which we, as Canadians, accept it will depend our future comfort, our social and economic development, and, by a wider token, how much we shall put into and derive from an ordered and peaceful world society. Let us hope that by the time another of these October festivals comes round we shall be able to combine a renewed expression of genuine thankfulness for victory in war with triumph over those domestic dissensions which are part of the sequel of the last six years of bitter travail.

A TOUCH OF MAGIC

BY A SLIGHT TOUCH OF MAGIC, MANY servicemen far from their native hearths have enjoyed the hospitality of Greater Victoria citizens. It has been a heart-warming expression of hospitality which has rendered less lonely the long separation from loved ones and has, in some measure, shown the appreciation of families in this community for the sacrifices undertaken by those who donned uniforms. It has, too, been a source of satisfaction to those who have opened their homes and have felt that through such action they have repaid some of the debt they owed other families far away who showed similar consideration for their own husbands, fathers and sons.

It was all done by a slight touch of magic. And the magic came from the wand of tireless effort in the hands of Miss Ellen Hart, daughter of Dr. E. C. Hart, and chairman of the Victoria Citizens' War Services Committee. This Ellen Hart, incidentally, should not be confused with the political candidate with a similar name.

Now Miss Hart, whose work has been known and acclaimed by the Y.M.C.A., the Salvation Army, the Knights of Columbus and the Canadian Legion, as well as Robert House, to which she lent such untiring energies, is ending her voluntary leadership. Pressing domestic claims call for the strength she has shown in her war service—a strength which has ignored the difficulties of certain physical incapacities. But Miss Hart's reward is the appreciation she, along with those families who assisted her in her work, has found from service personnel who are returning to homes in far-flung quarters of the globe.

DELAY WOULD BE DANGEROUS

AT AN OPEN MEETING OF THE EXecutive committee of the United Nations Organization in London yesterday, Mr. Edward R. Stettinius, the United States delegate, strenuously objected to all suggestions that the first formal assembly of this universally-accepted body should be postponed until after Christmas. And our neighbor's representative was on sound ground when he warned his colleagues on the committee that the world was waiting for the Security Council, the Social and Economic Council, and the International Court to get themselves ready for the duties it is intended they shall perform. As matters stand now, therefore, the executive will wind up its session on Oct. 18, and will fix Nov. 8 as the starting date for the 50-member preparatory conference—which will arrange for the General Assembly to convene early in December.

According to London advices, the argument for postponement developed within the executive committee itself—presumably deriving its impetus from the somewhat unsatisfactory ending of the first meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers—but from what source is not indicated. However that may be, the average observer of international developments since the signing of the Charter in San Francisco last June will have little patience with any move to postpone the operation of the one body on which a war-weary humanity depends for the removal of the dangers of further war; indeed, the state in which the world finds itself five months after V-E Day amply supports Mr. Stettinius' objection to delay.

Although the Council of the Foreign Ministers was charged with the technicalities of the peace treaties, and such other matters as the Potsdam Declaration decided should come within its purview, and despite the fact that it produced more conflict of view than mutual agreement, nothing which conceivably transpired behind the closed doors of Lancaster House in London should confuse the simple demand of all the people of the United Nations—a lasting and just peace. In other words, the sooner the General Assembly of the UNO and its vital subsidiary agencies meet and get down to the business for which they were intended, the better for the future of the world. And if in consequence some nations, whether big or small, are put temporarily "on the spot" as it were, surely its basic service to mankind will not be impaired.

HELPING THEM BACK

IN AN INTERNATIONALLY-READ MAGazine, an article was published earlier this year from a young soldier who had lost an arm in the war. It stated his position very clearly and was absolutely divorced from sentimentality. He was, according to the story, proud of the score he was making at golf, managed to enjoy most of the reasonable pleasures of living, and, apart from missing the skin-tingling rub of a stretched towel across his back after a bath, was looking after himself very well, thank you. His one plea to the public, both for himself and those who shared his point of view, was that they should not be showered with sympathy. Understanding, yes. But not sympathy, particularly as it is known in its vocal form.

The story came back to us as we heard of an incident affecting a young boy who has recently started to climb back to normalcy from the distortion of life in a Japanese internment camp. The little fellow was noticed by a games' instructor in charge of a group of carefree Canadian boys clamoring and yelling with exuberance before the more disciplined routine of their sport. The former internee was hanging back in a corridor, bewildered by the noise, unhappy and unable to mix with the others. In his deep trouble and tenseness, he could not tell the instructor his name. But with consideration and friendliness, he was finally encouraged to participate in the game. By the time it had ended, he was one of the boys, shouting with the best of them—liberated.

Unfortunately, however, it may not be quite so easy to help those who are older to re-orient themselves. But, if we are to accept the suggestion of the courageous amputation case, we will make more progress with understanding than condolences.

HORSE CHESTNUT

AGAINST THE SPLENDOR OF AUTUMN foliage at this season, nature presents the masterpiece of the horse chestnut. It is as if the bright gold of the spatulate leaves was merely background for the polished perfection of the seed. Since the cone of small blooms withered, a cunning craftsmanship has gone into the molding of the nut itself. Within the hard, spiked husk that is its spherical pod the seed has taken form, grown firm and gained its rich brown coat. Now, as the winds blow, it drops with the falling leaves and the shield bursts, revealing in its cream-satin compartments the lacquered beauty it concealed.

Nothing in nature quite rivals its finish, its warmth of coloring or its graining. There is a gleaming sheen to it, red-brown like a well burnished boot. Darker whorls pattern it and the rich buff of its base lends it a contrasting harmony as satisfying as the pigments of an old master.

In its unscratched, untarnished freshness, the chestnut is a favored toy for the youngster who pierces it, threads through a knotted string and plays "konkers." But if it is left, it rests through the winter, safe in its outer shell, warm under the fall of leaves, until, softened by the spring rains, it sprouts in the age-old miracle of regeneration.

The first sign of age is the frantic feeling that the days are slipping by with nothing worth while accomplished.

Ceiling Reform

By CHESTER A. BLOOM

OTTAWA.

NOW THAT MEMBERS themselves have launched an appeal for reform of hearing in the House of Commons by proposing installation of loud speakers at each seat, I wish to raise my voice, too.

What I want to reform, is not only audibility but the whole horrible roof, or rather ceiling—decorations and all—of the House of Commons.

Metaphorically speaking, the House of Commons from the neck up is an architectural hybrid. It is an insult to good taste, artistic unity, sensibility, color and hearing.

The walls begin beautifully in great stone blocks, with tall, pointed arch, Gothic windows inset. But two-thirds of the way up, between the windows, the walls begin to turn inward in a frightful mess of baroque fretwork. Then this semi-barrelling runs up against a curious, gilt frieze of rococo design.

PAIRS OF GAMBOLING, gilt cupids decorate the frieze at intervals, the frieze itself forming a projecting ledge just under the ceiling around the whole chamber. (I have a consuming curiosity to investigate this ledge; have heard people can walk around it unseen and unheard by the legislators during secret sessions.)

At any rate, with about a six-foot space between it and the ledge there stretches over the whole vast cavern of the hall a perfectly flat ceiling of Irish linen, of a dusty, discolored blue. No doubt the designers of this monstrous artistic offence found at the last minute that the acoustics of the chamber were poor and sought to palliate it with the cloth ceiling. (I have been told anyone could step right through this cloth ceiling and parachute himself on to the heads of the members.)

IT WOULD SEEM almost that the architects and decorators, after having achieved a perfect masterpiece of balanced form and unity in the graceful Gothic building itself; after having touched Empyrean heights in the decoration of the lovely Senate chamber, suffered a kind of artistic hangover when they wound up in the Commons chamber.

Salvadore Dali himself couldn't have exceeded its total effect with the best of his surrealistic nightmares.

There is always great speculation among press gallery newcomers concerning the symbolism of the gamboling cupids. Old-timers explain that they were put there so that tired M.P.'s bored from examining the estimates, could lean back in their seats, gaze upward, and refresh themselves with more pleasant day-dream wanderings amid the flowery meads and meadows of imagination with Venus and her attendant train.

THE EXPLANATION reminds me of that given to newcomers in the United States Senate press gallery. The ceiling of that chamber is formed of small squares of transparent glass. On each is glazed some picture of American enterprise—locomotives, steamships, power looms, binders, reapers, etc.

One plaque always puzzles. It represents a kind of machine not even fertile American mechanics have produced. To the wondering newcomers, it is explained that this machine symbolizes United States senatorial thoughts—it is a fertilizer spreader.

It seems all architects believe legislators must have something of this kind to gaze at to keep them from going off the deep end.

STILL AND ALL, I insist on reform. Let us either rip out the whole ceiling of the Commons chamber and carry the Gothic motif on through with beams to the very roof, or else go wholly Romanesque and install a somewhat flattened but arching ceiling carried inward from the top of the semi-barrelling between the windows.

That would lower the ceiling materially and immeasureably improve its acoustics. True, the cupids would have to go; but our legislators could seek visionary relief elsewhere.

SAIGON

From United Kingdom Information Service

With reference to events in Saigon it is pointed out in London that the presence of British forces in Indo-China is the result of the decision of the United Kingdom and United States governments in assigning the task of accepting the Japanese surrender in Indo-China south of latitude sixteen, to S.E. Asia Command, the corresponding task north of latitude sixteen being allotted to the Chinese Command. The decision was taken because adequate French forces could not be available in time.

The role of the British forces in Indo-China is simply to take over from the Japanese and maintain law and order, pending the arrival of French forces sufficient to assume control. The British command has nothing to do with the aspirations of local political movements. But it is the duty of the British Occupying Force to suppress all disorders, whether provoked by such governments, or by the Japanese, or by both.

LAW FACULTY

From The Advocate

The announcement of the establishment of a Faculty of Law by the Board of Governors of the University of British Columbia is received with profound satisfaction by all members of the Bar of the province at all interested in their profession. Thanks and commendation is due to the Premier and his government who were persuaded to appropriate the necessary money for the purpose.

THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst

It's an old saying—and generally true—that when a man has something on his chest, it's best to speak up and get rid of it.

So in the long run the Soviet government organ Izvestia may have helped clear the air by its sharp charges against the attitudes of the Anglo-American allies in the inharmonious conference of the Big Five Council of Foreign Ministers which just ended in London. It isn't that the western allies agree with the strictures but that Moscow's viewpoint has been placed face up on the table where all can see.

The conference came to an unhappy deadlock over procedure in drawing up the peace treaties for Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland. State Secretary Byrnes and Foreign Minister Bevin held that France and China—as well as Russia, Britain and the United States—should discuss the terms of these treaties. Foreign Minister Molotov maintained that the Potsdam agreement limited the discussions to the signatories of the various armistices.

Izvestia accused Messrs. Byrnes and Bevin of attempting to break the Postdam agreement. Of course, such a disagreement is serious. Actually it is more serious than appears on the surface because power politics are entering into the situation. It looks as though a spirit of "all take and no give" is trying to wedge its way into the councils of the great powers. The Allies won the war on the basis of "give" and not to "take."

It seems strange that this lesson of "all for one and one for all" should have been forgotten so quickly. Since nobody wants to fight, an application of more "give" and less "take" is what is called for. There is no problem of "power politics" which should not be susceptible of solution on this basis of compromise.

NEW TRUCK AND TRAILER UNIT
Especially Built for the R. A. Green Lumber Co. Ltd.

This modern unit, recently supplied by Wilson and Cabeldu, was specially designed for Green's for heavy duty lumber hauling, and has a carrying capacity 50% greater than ordinary units. It will provide efficient transportation for much-needed lumber supplies. Interesting trailer details include ratchet-type load binder, using light wire lines, instead of heavy, hard-to-handle chains. The unit now hauls daily loads from the Hillcrest Lumber Company, at Mesache Lake, to Victoria, a run of 120 miles return.

● MR. CEDRIC HEMSTOCK, pictured with the unit, has been driving for the Company for over six years, and has an enviable, accident-free record. He has been specially commended for his care and courtesy on the road, by the B.C. Provincial Police, and the V.I. Coach Lines.

Personal Letter to the Electorate of the Esquimalt District—

Windsor Farm,
Cowichan Station,
October 5, 1945.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I had the honor of being selected as your COALITION candidate. Before permitting my name to be put forward I made it clear that this action was only to take effect if I were acceptable as such by the Conservative Party, as my one and only wish is to serve the COALITION, which is, in my opinion, the best form of Government for British Columbia in the immediate future. To the thousands who are of the same opinion I ask your active support, please, in the election which is to take place on Thursday, October 25.

It will, I feel sure, be readily appreciated that I can not make many personal calls during the short period of time between Nomination Day and Polling Day. I must first get released from my personal business, and then attend meetings almost daily in every district of a large constituency.

At these public meetings I hope to learn your wishes, and local requirements, also to hear your opinions—favorable or otherwise.

If you are like myself, an out-and-out COALITIONIST, who is prepared to implement his opinions—arrange to vote accordingly. Presuming I am elected, I believe that my power to help my constituency is in direct ratio to the size of my majority.

It is with pleasure that I can take this opportunity to thank Squadron Leader and Mrs. Finland for their immediate and unreserved offer to help.

Yours very truly,
CHARLES T. BEARD.

Victorians Spend Thanksgiving Outdoors

Thanksgiving week-end finds many well-known Victorians motoring up-island. Some are going fishing. For others it will be a gun, a dog and brace of birds to show at the end of the day. Many are just going to relax and enjoy the warm Indian summer weather.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Brown have registered at Forbes' Hotel. Miss Eve Weatherstone of Seattle is with them. Other Victorians week-ending at Forbes' Landing are: Mr. and Mrs. J. Munsden, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Jeune, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Rickenson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lumsden and Mr. R. Moyer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Douglas, Miss Joan Douglas, Miss Drucie Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Moncton, Mr. E. A. Taylor and Lieut. Ken Ross will all be at Yelow Point Lodge.

FISHING AT CAMPBELL

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Tait, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hunter, and Mrs. H. Foley are trying their luck with the salmon fishing from Painter's Lodge at Campbell River.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnston and Mrs. J. Haniball will be at Crayharven Inn, Parksville, for Thanksgiving, while Capt. and Mrs. R. Bradshaw, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Izard have chosen Sunset Inn at Qualicum Beach.

Salt Spring Island will also have its quota of Victorians. Among them, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Devenish, NS. E. C. Graham, NS. E. Gray and Mr. J. E. Brown are all registered at Harbor House.

Mr. A. Agnew and a party of friends will be fishing the Cowichan River, with headquarters at Riverside Hotel.

Shawnigan Lake, with its surrounding hills ablaze with autumn color, will also have its share of Victoria visitors over the week-end. Shawnigan Beach Hotel registrations include: Mr. and Mrs. C. Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Preudholme and family, Miss M. E. Jiggle, Lieut. and Mrs. M. D. Lawson and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Williams, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Eilbeck Wilson, Miss Gloria Wilson and Mr. Denis Harris will spend the week-end at Cowichan Bay.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson has returned to the city after visiting in Vancouver, the guest of Hon. Mr. Justice and Mrs. J. O. Wilson.

Miss Elspeth Ker and Miss Shirley Cameron, who are resident students at York House in Vancouver, are spending the holiday week-end at their Victoria homes.

Flt. Lt. and Mrs. K. A. Herchmer, with their little daughter Patricia, are visiting the latter's parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Cattroll, Oliver Street, prior to leaving for Toronto, where they will reside.

Mrs. Denis Crofton, Mrs. Fred Morris, Miss Denise and Miss Dulcie Crofton, Ganges, Salt Spring Island, left for Vancouver today, where they will meet Maj. Denis Crofton, who arrives Sunday morning from overseas.

Mrs. Arnold Bailey was hostess at her home on Saanich Road with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Beth Patterson, who is to be married on Monday. Refreshments were served, with Mrs. A. Cromarty and Miss Margaret Patterson assisting the hostess. Other guests were Mesdames T. Patterson, C. Harknett, J. Van Maanen, E. Simmons, D. McPhail, C. Neal, and Misses Peggy Dykes and Dora Curtis.

Miss May Burns, whose marriage will take place Saturday, was guest of honor when Mrs. David Bain entertained with a surprise kitchen shower at her home, 864 Wollaston Street. Mrs. J. Newton and Mrs. W. Holborn assisted the hostess and others present were Mesdames Peter Burns, J. A. Woods, G. Sealey, P. Case, M. Gilman, M. Miller, H. W. Watkiss and the Misses Sheila and Janice Bain.

Miss Cecile Bouchard, M.B.E., daughter of Senator T. D. Bouchard of St. Hyacinthe, Que., has arrived in Victoria to spend the Thanksgiving week-end. Miss Bouchard, a former major in the C.W.A.C., is traveling across the Dominion in the interests of the Canadian Unity Alliance, a society composed of English and French-speaking people who are working for better understanding in Canada.

Tables were turned Thursday evening when Mrs. Lillian Lewis and Miss Phyllis Creasy entertained at the home of the latter, 1081 St. Patrick Street, with a kitchen shower, not only for the bride-elect, Miss Beth Patterson, but also for her fiance, FO. Thomas Lavery, R.C.A.F., who, in a frilly kitchen apron, was given the honor of opening the gifts. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. K. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. M. McMinn, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bailey, Mesdames Yvonne Billings, Margaret Rankin, J. Kyle, and the Misses Doreen Drummond-Hay, Gloria Ladwig, Christine Aitken, Mary Enoch, Janet Lambie, Edna White, Nancy Kyle, Nine Neave, Alice Eldridge, Joyce Kilmer, Kathleen Brain, Marjorie Gibbs, Margaret Patterson, Paddy Greenwood, Gael Churchill, SA. Marjorie Timberlake Wed By Candlelight

With the light from white tapers casting a soft beauty over Metropolitan United Church, the wedding vows were read Friday evening at 8 for Marjorie Helen, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Timberlake of Victoria, and James Marston Lindsay Alexder, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. L. Alexander, also of this city.

Dr. W. G. Wilson performed the ceremony, assisted by Dr. A. E. Whitehouse. Mrs. Mary Youson sang "Still As the Night" during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle by her father, was gowned in satin, her long flowing veil appliqued in lace, accenting the smooth lines of her princess-style dress. A sweetheart neckline, lily-point sleeves, and gathered waist styled a gown on which the only embroidery was a panel of appliqued satin at front and on the sleeves. She wore a tube satin Juliette cap, and her only jewelry was a strand of matched pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a white prayer-book, surmounted with two gardenias, and showered with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. R. H. B. Giraud of Vancouver, who attended the bride as matron of honor, wore white sheer, her gown being fashioned with full long sleeves and flowing skirt. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with seed pearls, as was her little Dutch cap. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Timberlake, sister of the bride, and Miss Barbara Kemp, were gowned alike in starched white lace, their frocks carrying out the same design as that of the bride and her matron of honor with full skirts and sweetheart necklines. They wore mitts of net with lace applique, tiny Dutch caps, and carried arm bouquets of red roses and white asters.

Douglas Adlem of Vancouver was best man, and the guests were shown to their places by Ken McNeil and Jerry Watson.

The bride and groom were assisted in welcoming the guests to the reception in the Duke of Kent Room at the Empress, by Mrs. H. S. Timberlake and Mrs. J. M. L. Alexander.

Taking leave of her guests, the bride wore a going-away costume of black, her dress having long sleeves, and featuring a satin-trimmed peplum. With it she wore pearls, a black hat, and three-quarter-length fur coat of kid. Her corsage bouquet of gardenias completed the ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander left on the boat for the mainland, and after their honeymoon will reside in Victoria.

Nature Movie Shown At Canadian Club

Addressing a meeting of the Women's Canadian Club Friday afternoon in the Empress Hotel ballroom, Dick Bird of Regina presented "Camera Trails Along Nature's Trails," a colored movie of bird life, prairie storms, sunsets and wild flowers.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell presided and spoke on the Princess Alice Scholarship Fund, urging members to send their contributions to Miss Mary Campbell, 1029 Linden Avenue, or to the W.V.S. Office in the Arcade Building.

The president asked members to remember the parcels of food being sent bi-monthly to two young boys in France and to fill ditty bags for the Merchant Marine. The ditty bags should be filled by Nov. 15 and taken to Prince Robert House, she said.

Christopher Stone, BBC broadcaster from London, will speak on "Women's Contributions in War and in Peace," at the next meeting, Oct. 24.

Mrs. W. B. Milburn was the accompanist for the afternoon.

Red Cross Notes

Meetings Canceled—There will be no parade of Detachment No. 1 Canadian Red Cross Corps Oct. 8. Next parade will be Oct. 15. Regular meeting of the Red Cross Home Emergency Service workers will not be held on Oct. 8. Next meeting Oct. 15.

Columba Unit—Next meeting of Columba unit of the Red Cross will be held Wednesday at 2.30 at the home of Miss W. Seymour, Belgrave Road.

WALLFLOWERS LACK ALLURE

Many girls are very unhappy because they are unpopular. They are never one of the crowd. They seldom have a date. When they go to parties they are wallflowers, while other girls are dancing their feet off. Yet they are as pretty and as well-dressed and as intelligent as the girls who go everywhere and have good times and plenty of boy friends. And these forlorn maidens ask why this is thus.

Well, the riddle of the Sphinx is an easy one compared to the conundrum of why one girl has the boys flocking about her like bees around a honeypot, while another, equally pulchritudinous, has never a beau to bless herself with. Primarily it seems to be a matter of sex. Some girls have what we call it, while others lack it, and if Old Mother Nature did not put a come-hither look in a lassie's eyes, it is just too bad, but she can do nothing about it.

TWO DRAWBACKS

Added to the initial handicap of lacking feminine allure, the wallflower girl has two other drawbacks. The first one is only too often her mother who takes it as a personal reflection on herself that her daughter is not a belle, and who twits her with it until she gives her such an inferiority complex that the poor child becomes so self-conscious and humiliated that she puts her worst foot foremost and muffs whatever attractions she may possess. Or, worse still, mother may be so determined to make daughter a belle in spite of herself that she hawks her around as if she were a bill of goods she was trying to sell, until she crushes the girl with shame.

The other drawback under which the wallflower girl labors is that she lacks man-sense. She has not the intuitive knowledge of how to handle boys, which the popular girl possesses. She is either too standoffish, or she is too eager, and both attitudes are fatal.

What, then, is the poor wallflower girl to do? I think her best play is to accept the situation and drop out of the competition for masculine favor. She should cut out the parties to which papa has to take her and where she sits around with the chaperones, or else spends the evening with the maid in the ladies' dressing-room, and go in for business or a career, or espouse a cause. That will not only save her face, but give her something interesting and profitable to do and enable her to find out that the life of the bachelor girl has a lot of pleasures and perquisites in it.

HIT IN THE OFFICE

And, curiously enough, the girl who was overlooked by men in the parlor often finds herself a hit in the office. She lacked the little arts and wiles that attracted boys. She didn't know how to flirt and roll her eyes and jitterbug, which fascinated youths as crude as she was; but when she quit trying to copycat popular girls and fell back on being just her own intelligent, humorous, pleasant, interesting self, the men she worked with sat up and took notice of her.

Many a woman, who never had a date when she was a girl, marries her boss when she becomes his very efficient secretary.

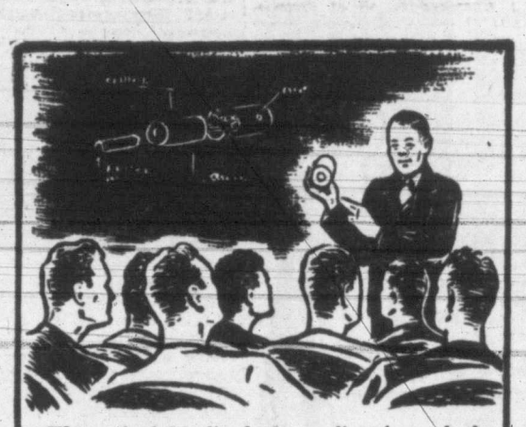
VICTORY MUST NOT BE IN VAIN!

NOW that the war is over and the world is at peace, it's a time for rejoicing, thanksgiving and of gratitude. Rejoicing because victory is ours; thanksgiving to God; and gratitude to our service men and women. All of us owe a great debt to these men and women who gave up the best years of their lives that we might be free. Money can never repay this debt we owe. But money—and the things money can buy—will provide them with medical care and attention, educational opportunities and a new chance in a world at peace. Your purchase of Victory Bonds in the Ninth Victory Loan is your opportunity to show your appreciation and gratitude to Canada's gallant service men and women.

53,073 Canadian service men and women were wounded in the war. More than 9,000 others were prisoners-of-war. Many of these will need medical care for a long time. Your purchase of Victory Bonds will help these men and women along the road to recovery.



Thousands of Canadian boys went direct from school into the fighting forces. Today these young men must be trained in peacetime occupations and equipped to compete with more experienced workmen. We owe them the opportunity of a fresh start in life.

Nearly 38,000 Canadian service men made the supreme sacrifice that we might enjoy freedom—and our way of life. Today Canada asks you to lend your money to help dependent wives, mothers and children by the payment of pensions.

Many of our service men and women want to be independent—to be in business for themselves. Today, your country needs your extra dollars to pay these men and women gratuities with which they can establish a business, buy a home or own a farm.

VICTORY BONDS are a guarantee of the secure, prosperous, happy life of every one of us in peacetime Canada. Buy double this time . . . the same rate of savings as in previous Victory Loans, will pay for twice as many bonds over the 12 month period.

There will not be another Loan for 12 months.

There are 4 ways you can buy Victory Bonds:

1. For Cash.
2. By regular monthly payments over a period of 12 months out of your pay envelope.
3. By the deferred payment plan. It is a way you can buy more Victory Bonds with money as you get it.
4. By personal arrangement with your bank, trust or loan company.

Plan New Air Service Whitehorse-Fairbanks

WINNIPEG (CP)—W. F. English, operations manager of Trans-Canada Airlines here, said today that approval of a permit for T.C.A. to fly between Whitehorse, Yukon, and Fairbanks, Alaska, also contained permission for subcontracting of the line to Canadian Pacific Airlines.

The approval was announced Friday night in Washington by the Civil Aeronautics Board under the terms of an air agreement reached between the United States and Canada last February. The agreement provided that one U.S. and one Canadian airline would operate over the Whitehorse-Fairbanks route.

See Brief Term For Shidehara As Jap Premier

TOKYO (AP)—The trembling old hands of Baron Kijuro Shidehara, who fought Japanese military aggression from its start, today picked up the reins of Japanese government—which he said he hopes to make truly liberal.

There was immediate speculation the new Japanese government might be short-lived. Shidehara reportedly accepted only because he, too, believed this.

Sources at Gen. MacArthur's headquarters, who said Higashi-Kuni's "straddling cabinet" had reached an expected end, considered it likely the Japanese are avoiding selection of the strongest possible premier at this time because the life of the forthcoming government seems foreshortened. These sources believed Japan was holding the strongest man for a future cabinet.

The 73-year-old baron was summoned dramatically from 14 years of retirement, forced on him by the militarists whom he opposed, to become premier of Japan at the most critical point in that country's history.

Kramer's Confession Read At Trial

LUENEBURG, Germany (AP)—Josef Kramer, "the beast of Belsen," confessed he gassed prisoners at the Natzweiler concentration camp in a signed statement presented today as the prosecution concluded its case against 45 S.S. men and women guards accused of conspiracy to commit mass murder.

Kramer, who saw duty at five concentration camps, also admitted he was fully aware of the gas chamber and crematorium at the Oswiecim camp he commanded.

Kramer's confession, contradicting an earlier statement closed the prosecution's case. The defence is expected to summon 40 witnesses and the trial may continue another three weeks. All the accused probably will be examined individually.

Trade Meeting On Preferences Foreseen In Ottawa In January

WASHINGTON (Reuter)—Need for full intra-empire consultations and United States congressional approval may well delay completion of an Anglo-American trade and financial agreement until March, 1946, it was learned today in quarters close to the British delegation headed by Lord Keynes and the Earl of Halifax.

As a result of reported U.S. insistence that the Empire trade preference system be abolished, Commonwealth countries already are being sounded out as to an early—perhaps in January—Empire conference which probably would take place in Ottawa.

It is understood Canadian spokesmen have already implied willingness to take part in such a conference. New Zealand, Australian and South African representatives here have been in close touch with their capitals regarding the possibility.

Possibility of a conference is being considered in anticipation of expected delivery within the next few days of a complete U.S. trade and financial proposal offering Britain up to $5,000,000,000 as a loan with small interest but insisting that Empire tariffs be slashed or abolished.

In all likelihood such an offer will not be categorically refused but rather the British reply is expected to be:

1. The offer of financial aid is greatly appreciated and highly acceptable.

2. Dissolution of the Empire trade preference system cannot be discussed with comparable U.S. concessions in the way of tariffs, exchange quotas, subsidies and the like.

3. Empire preferences and sterling balances cannot be reduced by Britain unilaterally, but must be reduced—if at all—by joint consultation.

It is possible—but is not considered probable—that the U.S. government would agree to make a loan on a British promise to consult the Dominions soon regarding cutting Empire tariffs. Congressional approval on such a basis, however, is considered extremely unlikely.

Therefore it is impossible to foresee much that will prevent the whole British-U.S. negotiations hanging fire until intra-Empire discussions are completed.

De Gaulle Bids For Alsace Area

PARIS (AP)—Gen. de Gaulle returned from a tour of Alsace today after having enunicated the new French policy of friendship and co-operation with Rhineland Germans.

"We must work together," he told the Germans in almost every statement he made.

The policy, contrasting with the "hard peace" pronouncements of the United States, Britain and Russia, brought evident surprise and satisfaction to German civil administrators.

Official members of the De Gaulle party said it was an open attempt by France to win the 10,000,000 Rhineland Germans away from the rest of Germany and to bring that area, as a unit, into a political and economic union with France.

Tension Grows At Windsor

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Mayor Arthur Reaume said today that "day by day tempers become more strained" among the 10,000 striking automotive workers here and warned the federal government that "the inference that bloodshed is needed" to bring the matter before the House "cannot go unchallenged."

Windsor Meets King

LONDON (CP)—The Duke of Windsor paid a surprise visit late today to Buckingham Palace, where he was reported to have conferred for approximately an hour with his brother, King George, in the King's private study.

The Duke who flew to London Friday from Paris, spent Friday night, and is spending tonight, at Marlborough House, the home of his mother, Queen Mary.

6 Die In Crash On Level Crossing

MONTREAL (CP) — A level-crossing accident at Chesterville, Ont., today caused the deaths of six persons when the automobile in which they were traveling was struck by an eastbound Canadian Pacific Railway freight train, it was announced here at C.P.R. headquarters.

Driver of the car, the announcement said, was Howard Beckstead, 52, of Chesterville, which is 40 miles southeast of Ottawa.

Taxi Driver Slugged Here

Taxi driver Harry Green, 1266 Montrose Avenue, was slugged on the back of the head in his cab shortly after midnight by an assailant described as a "very pale sailor."

A resident at 1045 Richardson Street telephoned police at 12.15 to report that a man was shouting for help. Investigating, they found Green slugged in his car, and took him to St. Joseph's Hospital for treatment. He said he had been attacked by a sailor who had asked to be taken to an address on Burdett Avenue.

Search of the district revealed no trace of the assailant.

Full Sports Program For Holiday Week-end

Tonight: Swimming gala at Crystal Garden at 8.

Sunday: Soccer, Nanaimo vs. V.M.D. at Nanaimo; Uplands Golf Club medal tournament starting at 8.30; Alberni Tyee Club fishing derby at Alberni.

Monday: Soccer, Toppers vs. Navy at Athletic Park starting at 2.30; American football, Mustangs vs. Vancouver Bombers starting at 2.30.

Sport enthusiasts in Victoria have made varied plans for enjoying the thanksgiving week-end.

Highlights of the Thanksgiving Day program will be the senior league soccer match between Toppers and the Navy at Athletic Park, and the American football match between the Victoria Mustangs and Vancouver Blue Bombers at Macdonald Park.

Both fixtures promise lots of excitement. The soccer game will be the first start for both teams this season.

Toppers, winners of the Juvenile Soccer League last season, have stepped up into senior company.

The Navy eleven will be using some British navy personnel, who may bring new angles to Victoria fans.

Last week the Mustangs dropped a game 13 to 7 to the Vancouver College but Coach Billy Bishop has ironed out the wrinkles and feels sure of a win against the Vancouver boys. The American football game will be broadcast over CJVI.

The week-end sporting schedule opened this afternoon with a soccer match at Royal Athletic Park between the Canadian Legion and the Victoria Wests and will continue tonight with an intercity swimming gala at the Crystal Garden.

CHAMPIONS AT GALA

Plenty of action is expected in the gala tonight in which the Victoria Y.M.C.A. will be competing against the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club. Both teams are featuring Canadian champions and record holders.

Many local supporters are expected to journey to Nanaimo Sunday to see the soccer match between the V.M.D. and Nanaimo eleven.

Badminton games have been arranged over the week-end at the Willows main building and at the Civil Service Badminton Club.

Skating fans will get their first taste of the ice over the week-end when a large number of them make the up-island trip to the Nanaimo arena, which opened today.

Fishing and hunting should attract a good number of sportsmen. Grouse hunting has been slack due to the dryness of the weather making it increasingly difficult to locate the birds.

Cowichan Bay is having a good run of salmon and there should be lots caught there over the holiday. Fishing at Shawnigan Lake is reported good.

The Port Alberni Tyee Club reports good fishing in the Port Alberni area and will hold a derby day Sunday.

Many Prizes In Tyee Club Derby

Some lucky fisherman will be the winner of the 14-foot boat and inboard offered as first prize in the Port Alberni fishing derby Sunday and eight other fine prizes are also offered.

Fishing at Port Alberni continues good. The change back to standard time has helped the early risers. The extra hour means a lot and the fishermen are taking advantage of it. Competition is running high with some trying hard mornings and evenings for that qualifying big one.

Honors for the biggest fish of the week go to Jim Kennedy with a 52½-pounder.

The Albernis added Pete Sallaway, sports editor of the Victoria Times, to their long list of boosters. Pete fished last Saturday morning and landed a 40-pounder and followed up Sunday with two more that tipped the scales at an even 35 pounds each

Borowy, Newhouser To Pitch Sunday

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago (AP) — Righthander Hank Borowy and Lefty Hal Newhouser, respectively, the Cub and Tiger pitchers in the opening game of the world series, will come back Sunday to hurl the fifth game of the set, the rival managers announced today.

They'll Do It Every Time

Soccer School Hears Old-time Footballer

C. V. Milton, an old-time footballer who has done much for soccer in Victoria, spoke to members of the Victoria soccer school Friday night. Speaking in an instructive manner to the young players, Mr. Milton outlined the growth of soccer from the time it was first played, to its present form.

Don Gray, secretary of the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association, has announced that entries into the junior and juvenile brackets will be closed Tuesday when a meeting of the association will be held at St. Louis College.

Beat Athletics 12-6

Burrards Win Opener

VANCOUVER (CP)—St. Catharines Athletics must find some answer for Vancouver Burrards' speed if they hope to retain the Canadian senior men's lacrosse championship.

Burrards buzzed all around the eastern champions for an easy 12 to 6 victory here last night in the first game of the best-of-five series and established themselves as favorites for the second game at nearby New Westminster Monday.

Burrards' early jitters and the goal-tending of Bill Whittaker in the St. Catharines net combined to keep the teams on even terms for the first 25 minutes but after that the western champions took control and won going away.

George Cleverley's Athletics looked ponderous beside the fleet Burrards. Although the garden city crew outweighed Burrards, the weight appeared to be in the wrong places.

CONDITIONING FACTOR

The superb condition that won the western championship for Burrards was the deciding factor as they got off on the right foot in the Dominion finals. Coach Johnny Dale has been giving his Vancouver team vitamin tablets and last night it looked as if the "speed-balls" may have been beneficial.

By JAMES McARTHUR
Treasurer, Victoria Lawn Tennis Club

WITH THE end of hostilities, Victoria, in common with cities all over the country, is starting a widespread search for talent in all lines of sport. Baseball schools, basketball schools, and competitions of one type or another are the order of the day, with young men and young women of high school age in the spotlight; and rightly so. There have been vast gaps cut in the ranks of sport over the last five years. Development has been at a standstill and it is now the job of the youth of the community to step in and efficiently plug these holes if Victoria is to maintain and increase an already enviable reputation in the sporting fraternity.

Tennis, no less than its kindred sports, must face this problem of junior training in the immediate future if players of championship calibre are to be produced to keep this city in active competition with others in the Pacific northwest! During the season just past all clubs report a resurgence of interest in the game, and this is certainly borne out by the splendid entry in the city senior championships held in August.

The junior championships, however, did not attract nearly as large an entry as might by expected from a city of this size, and although the competition was keen, there was plenty of room for young men and women of athletic ability to step in and cut a name for themselves. The winner of the junior men's title was Jack Milledge, a fine young stylist, who should go far in future years. Jack also holds the Victoria High School Cup. Winner in the junior women's division was Catherine Anderson, who next year steps up into senior company and is bound to be heard from before long, if keenness is any criterion.

Tennis offers many and diverse opportunities for young men and women to reach the top, and due to a fine international organization, players like Jack and Catherine are on an equal footing with other young people on this continent in point of view of opportunity. This can be readily demonstrated. A few days ago the September issue of the American Lawn Tennis Magazine arrived at our club from New York. The cover was entirely taken up by a picture of a rather short, slight, youth with the extremely short haircut so popular these days. He was in the act of executing a forehand drive, and the whole was labeled simply, "Herbert Flam, National Junior Champion."

Now there is nothing remarkable in this as such, but Flam represents the final product of a tremendous search that yearly stretches to the four corners of North America in an endeavor to establish the top-ranking junior player. This end is achieved by a series of sectional tournaments in various parts of the country with the winners gathered late in July at Kalamazoo, Michigan, to decide the national champion. Glancing through the entry list at Kalamazoo, I noticed that Wally Bostick of Seattle represented the Pacific Northwest. Bostick became representative of this section only after a terrific struggle with Lorn Main, an up-and-coming youngster from Vancouver who has yet to reach his 15th birthday.

According to Vancouver papers Main is a find who is going to go a long way in Canadian tennis in the next few years and there will be others, too, who will be anxious to get into the competition. It is to be hoped that when clubs around Victoria again raise there nets next March or April there will be an ample showing of young men on hand eager to accept the challenge laid down by players like Bostick and Main; who knows, there may be another Herbert Flam right here in our midst.

Seattle Rainiers Take Cup Opener

SEATTLE (AP)—Seattle Rainiers came from behind in the seventh inning to defeat the San Francisco Seals 3 to 2 in the opening game of the Pacific Coast League Governor's Cup series Friday.

San Francisco .011000000—2
Seattle .000000210—3

Overtime Lacrosse

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Kimount Junior Lacrosse Club of Vancouver scored a hard-fought 11 to 10 overtime victory over Murdie's Victoria club in the first game of the best-of-three B.C. Junior Championship Series. Second game will be played at New Westminster Monday.

The Victoria club went into a 4 to 3 lead in the first quarter and led 6 to 5 at half time. They moved into an 8 to 6 lead in the third session but wilted in the last quarter under pressure of the Kimounts, who held them scoreless while netting two goals to knot the count at 8 to 8 in regulation time.

Valuable Prize List In Fall Kennel Show

The prize list for the Victoria City Kennel Club annual fall championship show, Oct. 10, is probably one of the most valuable and the largest ever offered. It includes a sterling silver trophy for the best dog in the show, $10 cash and a $10 war savings certificate for the best Canadian bred in the show owned by a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, the City of Victoria cup for the best Canadian bred and prizes for the best novice in the show, best junior puppy in the show, best senior puppy in the show, best puppy in the show, best brace in the show, best Canadian bred female Boston terrier, best Boston owned, bred and handled by exhibitor; best limit male Pekingese, best of each of the six groups and best of breed where six or more are in competition.

Classification is provided as follows and is divided by sex: Junior puppy, six months and under nine months; senior puppy, nine months and under 12 months; novice dogs never having won a first prize at a championship show; limit dogs that have not won more than three first prizes; Canadian-bred dogs born in Canada; limit all ages and champions.

Any dog that is pure bred is eligible for competition, whether pedigreed or not. All entries are subject to the rules and conditions laid down by the Canadian Kennel Club.

Dr. Frand Porter-Miller of Los Angeles will judge all breeds, and the event will be staged in the lower ballroom at the Crystal Garden, and judging will commence at 11, and will continue throughout the day and evening until the final award of the best of all breeds in the show is made.

"FORWARD WITH CANADA"

MONTREAL
Metropolis of Canada

Living, working, building together, Montreal's million citizens are not French, not English but Canadians. Combined, their efforts have won this Canadian city an international fame for achievements in commerce, science and arts.

Where Cartier saw humble Hochelaga Village, Canadians see a great city—an inland port unique in the world—proud heritage of practising the four freedoms—freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want, freedom from fear. Canadians know Montreal as their own metropolis where two tongues speak this single proud resolve "Forward with Canada."

Northern Electric takes pride in its growth with Canada from small beginnings to a national electrical service . . . takes pride in its opportunity to serve the further upbuilding of this glorious country.

Another Policy-holder Reports...

"MY HUSBAND owns three policies in The Mutual Life of Canada, which he has taken out at various times for my protection and our retirement. Two are Ordinary Life and one is Family Income.

"If anything happens to him and I am left alone to bring up the children, I shall have an income from the insurance, and some cash to pay the bills and a reserve for emergencies. And if he lives to retirement age the cash values will give us an income.

"But I also have a policy on my own life, because I want him to be able to provide proper care for the children if anything happens to me. Our Mutual Life representative pointed out that Canadian government figures prove that in one case out of every three the wife dies before the husband.

"We chose The Mutual Life in which to insure because of the good reputation of the Company for fair dealing and low cost insurance."

Man Who Heeds Conscience As Judah Sure to Mend Ways

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

JUDAH was a man with a none too savory past when events of this lesson occurred. It was he who, more than anyone else, was responsible for Joseph being in Egypt. Reuben, it may be recalled, had persuaded his brethren to cast Joseph into a pit, when the brothers were conspiring to kill him, intending to go back and rescue Joseph and deliver him to his father.

But before this could happen, a caravan of Ishmaelites hove into sight, and Judah suggested that they sell Joseph to them—the first step of his going to Egypt. Later Judah was mixed up in a nasty affair with his daughter-in-law, the story of which is in Genesis 38.

IN BOTH of these affairs, he seems to have displayed a well-intentioned but muddled moral sense. He suggested selling Joseph, instead of killing him, because he was "our brother and our flesh." It isn't quite a brotherly act to sell one's own kin into slavery, but at that it was better than murder. When he suspected his daughter-in-law of sin, he ordered that she should be burnt to death, but when his own part in the affair was brought home to him, he acknowledged his sin with frank honesty, and did what he could to atone for the wrong.

Judah was a man, like many others, with a great capacity for good or evil. The seeds of good were in him, and now in the testing time of a great opportunity, they were bearing fruit. Where he had formerly been willing to sell Joseph, he was now urging that he be allowed to sacrifice himself so that his brothers might take back home with them little Benjamin, the son of Jacob's old age, who had taken the place of Joseph.

The story is one of intense dramatic setting, as if Joseph had planned it all to evoke Judah's passionate plea, and evidence of his moral restoration before the climax when, overcome with emotion and unable to restrain himself longer, he made himself known to his brethren.

TO JUDAH, particularly, the revelation must have meant deep heart-searching and poignant recollections, as he remembered that it was he who had first sent Joseph on his long course of slavery, imprisonment, and ultimate power and saviorship in time of famine. With what relief Judah must have heard Joseph's words of generous forgiveness, and his assurance that it had all happened for the outworking of God's providence! Nevertheless, how deeply his conscience must have condemned him, and inclined him to be a better man!

It is a satisfaction to see Judah, after his devious course, a changed man, greatly concerned for his family responsibilities, and willing to sacrifice himself lest he bring further tragedy upon his aged father. Commentators stress his family loyalty as the central fact of this lesson; but the great and true example of family loyalty and unswerving acceptance of all its opportunities of love and privilege is Joseph. The highest that can be said of Judah is that he was at last worthy to be called Joseph's brother.

Pats And Seaforths Among Those Due In Victoria Sunday

One hundred and thirty-seven Victorians, who served overseas with the Seaforth Highlanders, P.P.C.L.I., R.C.C.S., R.C.A., and other units, will arrive at Vancouver Sunday aboard four special trains. Three of the trains are scheduled to reach the station in time for the afternoon boat, which reaches Victoria at 10.30 in the evening.

Of the total number, 34 are Seaforths arriving aboard two C.P.R. trains at the mainland city at 10 and 10.15 in the morning. The others will arrive on C.N.R. trains, one of which is scheduled to arrive in Vancouver at 12.05 in the afternoon, the other at 4.30 in the afternoon.

Vancouver Island men on the trains are given below, but at the time of going to press it was indefinite which of them would be on the early trains, permitting them to reach here Sunday evening.

Pruritis—Intense Itching
Relieved quickly by this Medicinal Ointment

There are two forms of itching which are especially distressing. First pruritis vulvae—from which only women suffer and second pruritis ani—itching at the rectum from piles, pin worms or varicose veins.
The causes of both these forms of intense itching are often difficult to locate but what you do want, at once, is relief from the severe and depressing itching.
Then let Dr. Chase's OINTMENT help you for it brings relief almost as quickly as applied. Once used it will always be kept at hand for quick use when the need arises. 60 cts. a box. Economy size jar $2.00.

VALLOR—At St. Joseph's Hospital on Oct. 4, 1945, Charles Vallor of 1053 Finlayson Avenue, aged 61 years; born in Portsmouth, England, and a resident of British Columbia since 1910. He leaves his wife, at home, and a son, Alex. Charles Vallor.
Funeral from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Sunday, Oct. 7, at 2 p.m. Interment in Naval Cemetery, Esquimalt.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. T. Bailey and their daughter, Joyce, 1978 Forrester Street, wish to express their thanks for the many kind enquiries and letters of sympathy received since their son, F.O. Douglas James Bailey, R.C.A.F., was reported missing Jan. 16, 1945, and now for official purposes presumed killed.

IN MEMORIAM

EWING—In loving memory of John Ewing, who passed away Oct. 6, 1942.
Treasured thoughts of one so dear
Often bring a silent tear;
Thoughts return to scenes now passed,
Time rolls on, but memories last.
—Inserted by his loving wife and family.

FURNITURE

—OFF THE RECORD—

AWAY UP in the sky where everything's sane and sober, in this crispy lovely month of October, a couple of wave lengths which can't B seen, got themselves slightly off the beam. And so—one said 2 the other, "What kinda soap YOU plugging—brother?" "Well," said this other pal of radio, "they're sure a dirty bunch down below," and he spoke in a deep throaty basso. "I keep telling 'em they'll all get B.O." I only live and have one hope, that some day I won't B sellin' soap. By the way, what's YOUR hue and cry, what kinda stuff YOU urging 'em 2 buy?" "Well—my music's so sweet, that it often hurts, but I'll B darned if I'm not promoting—BURPS. Yep—if there's anyone down there without wind on the bel, I'll talk him into it, just as sure as h. . . Well—guess we'd better get back in the din, I can feel someone trying to tune us in. I guess it's just another dope, so you run along and spread on the soap. Cheerio and Burp. Burp U old phoney, but this should never have happened 2 a guy like Marconni.

Shippers Praised For Co-operation In Releasing Cars

George R. Fairhead, general freight traffic manager, Canadian National Railways system, Montreal, in an interview here today complimented British Columbia shippers for their co-operation in releasing freight cars quickly by having them loaded and unloaded without unnecessary delay.

"The railways are very busy," said Mr. Fairhead, "and all we ask is that shippers continue the good work they have been doing in recent years to assist us. Throughout Canada we have experienced a willingness to help us handle the tremendous volume we have been called upon to move. The nation's business requires every available freight car be handled with dispatch."

Mr. Fairhead added that refrigerator cars, particularly, are in great demand for the transportation of perishables, enormous quantities of which are moving and increased volume expected. He stated that a newly-designed refrigerator car had just been completed by the C.N.R. and that 300 of these units would be built in the near future at Transcona shops.

CADET THEATRE

Little sympathy should be spared for a happily married man who, with his family away, becomes involved with a lovely artist's model and commits murder. Yet the murderer in International Pictures' "The Woman in the Window," now at the Cadet Theatre, has the sympathy of the audience right from the start. Edward G. Robinson and Joan Bennett are starred in this RKO Radio release.

Midnight Show At Dominion

Pinky Lee, well-known comedian, was cast in a role virtually written for him in Republic's musical, "Earl Carrol Vanities," which is showing at the Dominion Theatre Sunday midnight.

He plays master of ceremonies at a Broadway night club, as a character known as Pinky Price. He is partially instrumental in engineering a romance between a brilliant young composer and an American - educated princess of European royality who gets a job in a show, played respectively by the co-stars, Dennis O'Keefe and Constance Moore.

A chorus of 42 lovelies provided song and dance specialties under direction of Sammy Lee, former Ziegfeld dance director responsible for "Show Boat" and "Rio Rita" numbers, in addition to many other notable shows.

Gas Turbines Propel Swiss Locomotives

LONDON (Reuter)—The gas turbine used in jet-propelled airplanes has been successfully used in Swiss locomotives and in other ways, Air Commodore Frank Whittle, Britain's jet plane inventor, said Friday night. Describing early experiments with the engine, Air Commodore Whittle said "it was a very alarming business . . . In the early days the individuals in the vicinity of the experiments did more running than the engine."

Danny Kaye Stars In 'Up In Arms' At York

Returning to the musical film field after five years of producing other types of screen fare, Samuel Goldwyn is said to have the gayest and most entertaining picture of his career in "Up in Arms," coming to the York Theatre Monday in technicolor, starring the Broadway comedy sensation, Danny Kaye, and bringing a new ensemble of Goldwyn Girls before the public.

Dinah Shore, Dana Andrews and Constance Dowling have top roles in the melodic tale of two buddies who are inducted into the Army, and who, with their nurse girl friends, find themselves aboard a big transport headed for Jap-infested islands in the South Pacific.

Elliott Nugent directed for RKO Radio release.

Rebecca, A Novel, Movie And Play

Daphne du Maurier's "Rebecca" has been made into everything but a ballet. First a novel, and a good one. Then a movie, and entirely worthy of the book.

And now as a play, co-starring Diana Barrymore and Bramwell Fletcher as the second Mrs. de Winter, and Maxim, her husband, comes to the Royal on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 12 to 13.

The story of "Rebecca," as millions of readers and movie fans know, concerns a young girl who becomes the second wife of Maxim de Winter, master of the Cornish estate of Manderley, over which hangs the shadow of his drowned first wife, Rebecca, giving rise to complications, which entangle Mrs. Danvers, the old Manderley housekeeper, and even Maxim de Winter, Rebecca's not-too-guiltless widower.

'Nob Hill' At Capitol Midnight Show

Starring George Raft, Joan Bennett, Vivian Blaine and Peggy Ann Garner, "Nob Hill," 20th Century-Fox's spectacular new technicolor hit at the Capitol Theatre, is showing midnight Sunday.

The film's exciting story is set in San Francisco's fabulous Barbary Coast at the turn of the century, when girls kicked highest, fists crashed hardest, and blood ran hottest. It is the story of the love battle that made the Barbary Coast pause in its song, turn from its women and reach for its hips.

In the thrilling drama-with-music, George Raft is seen as tough, but suave, "Tony Angel," the owner of the "Gold Coast," Frisco's most famous night spot. Beautiful Joan Bennett is the Nob Hill blue blood who invaded the Barbary Coast in search of thrills, and got more than she bargained for. The sensational "Cherry Blonde," Vivian Blaine, in her most important role to date, is seen as the "Gold Coast's" singing and dancing star.

Also featured in the outstanding cast are Alan "Falstaff Openshaw" Reed, B. S. Pully, Emil Coleman and Edgar Barrier.

Life of Jack London Comes to Rio Screen

There aren't enough "bad girls" in Hollywood. That was the complaint of producer Samuel Bronston, who for many weeks sought an actress to play the unconventional Mamie, oyster-pirate, in "Jack London." It was only after a long search that Bronston found a player in Virginia Mayo with the ability to portray, with conviction, a frail sister.

Whether it's the Hays office, or whether it's the present trend away from strong dramatic stories, most of Hollywood's heroines are cinematically lily white.

In "Jack Londan," coming Sunday midnight as Mamie, the actress depicts a 16-year-old waterfront waif who attaches herself to London, played by Michael O'Shea, during his youthful adventures as a San Francisco Bay oyster pirate.

ATLAS THEATRE

Pretty June Lockhart has the romantic lead opposite Peter Lawford in M-G-M's "Son of Lassie," grand technicolor sequel to beloved "Lassie Come Home." Donald Crisp and Nigel Bruce also have top roles in the Atlas Theatre attraction.

Plaza Shows Comedy Sunday Midnight

Though Jack Oakie and Wallace Ford have been intimate friends for more than 20 years, they never worked together until they faced each other across a boarding house table in a scene for Universal's "On Stage Everybody." The spectacular comedy musical is being shown Sunday midnight at the Plaza Theatre.

Each has worked with practically every other star in Hollywood, and it was just one of those odd coincidences that they have never been cast in the same film before.

Oakie is co-starred with Peggy Ryan and Johnny Coy in the new picture. Distinguished players in the supporting cast include Otto Kruger, Julie London and Esther Dale. Specialty entertainers are the famous winners of the recent radio talent search sponsored by the Blue Network (American Broadcasting Company).

One Woman's Day...

By NANCY HODGES

HAIRCUTS AND HARMONY

VICTORIANS over the years have evidently been missing a grand opportunity.

That is to have their haircuts, shaves and shampoos to the lilt of tonsil-tickling troubadors.

It used to be said that barbers were talkative, but now their be-lathered, be-towelled patrons are soothed by soft croonings and subtle harmonizations.

Only, of course, if they happen to live in those cities which boast a chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartette Singing in America—here you pause for breath!

So there's no doubt about it, we are definitely behind the times in not having a local chapter of the S.P.E.B.Q.S.A.

DANDIES AND DUDES

SUCH IS THE conclusion I have come to after reading an account of the society's song-fest held in London, Ont.

And, according to the Free Press of that city the singers were "dapper, they were dandies, they were dudes."

Ten barbershop quartettes, from as many cities in Canada and the United States, joined London's own, the Londonaires, in a "song-spree."

And did it to such good purpose that $1,000 was poured into the Kiwanis Club treasury.

But what's more, it sent "oldsters and young 'uns home from the H. B. Beal Technical School with harmony on their lips."

RULES AND RHYTHM

APPARENTLY barbershop quartettes are not just born, they are made—with infinite care and according to rules. For, says the same source:

"Sticking by the rules of good barbershop singing all the quartettes were unaccompanied.

"The key was given by the 'lead' with the aid of tuning fork and away they went, those harmonizing tenors, baritones and bases, scooting up the scale and down, singing sweet and lowdown or high and lyrical.

"They had melody, they had rhythm and always they had harmony."

And, we are told, the Londonaires struck all the notes of the show by their singing of "The Old Songs."

WITH VARIATIONS, TOO

AFTER THAT prelude, the other B.S.Q. went on to show what they could do by way of variations and fancy harmonic effects.

They warbled of their Coney Island baby, Mrs. Murphy's chowder with potency to make even the lady herself faint, of Honky-Tonky Town and George Cohan's Mary, of Ragtime Cowboy Joe, and the guy who stole their gal.

While the international champs, the Harmony Halls from Grand Rapids, Mich., demonstrated their championship calibre by some super-duper barbershop-quartette-singing.

Their particular contribution covered a wide range. It started with "Headin' to a Weddin'," then went on to a unique arrangement of "Begin the Beguine."

'WITH DIGNITY'

AFTER "My Dreams Are Getting Better All the Time," their ambitions seemed to be heading the same way.

For, we learn, they returned to the stage to do "typical barbershop in 'Rock and Roll'."

Then ended the program "with an arrangement of 'The Lord's Prayer' that achieved both dignity and fine barbershop type of singing."

Evidently acting can have a definite part in barbershop harmonizing techniques, too.

The Four Flushers from Pontiac, Mich., demonstrated this in their sad story of father who "spent his money 'Where the Doors Swing in and the Doors Swing Out,' for which they donned costumes to play the parts of mother, daughter, father and bartender."

Our local tonsorial artists who may feel that they haven't the necessary tonsil flexibility to aspire to such heights needn't worry.

According to the London critique, "individually excellent voices are not at all essential to good barbershop warblings, but they don't detract from the general effect."

One thing I must say disappointed me. There were no vocalizations of "Swe-ee-et Adeli-i-ne" on the London program.

Of course, I recall now that the S.P.E.B.S.Q.A. set its shaven face against that classic some time ago, because of "its alcoholic associations."

And issued an edict forbidding its inclusion on any of their barbershop concerts.

Which seems rather a pity. Because many a customer might jump right in with a little of his own improvised harmony on that grand old theme.

BIGGER AND BETTER BURSTS

HOWEVER, that London songspree was only an aperitif to tickle the patrons' palate for the gargantuan and galumptious feast to come.

Next month, bigger and better barbershop baritones and basses, tenors and altos, will lay down their razors and take up their tuning forks.

And make the welkin ring in one grand and glorious international contest in Detroit.

The crooning cream of the four S.P.E.B.S.Q.A. chapters in Canada, and the 500 in the United States—which boasts 9,000 members—will be there.

TO PROTECT PATRONS

SO, IF YOU hear soulful sounds floating up from the neighborhood of your local barber's candy-striped pole these days, don't be alarmed!

He may just be getting his tonsils in trim and trying out fancy rhythmic effects for the Detroit detonation.

In the meantime I am going to get busy—starting the first chapter here of what I intend to be a universal association.

And I shall name it the Society for the Provision of Earstops for the Protection of Barbershop Patrons from Haircutting Harmonizers.

Crain

WINNIPEG (CP)—Rye prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today were erratic earlier in trade when the market showed hesitation on light selling and ignored a firmer tone at Chicago.

The close was also irregular with July closing higher while others were lower.

At the close prices were ⅞ lower to ⅞ higher with October $1.71¼, December $1.68½, May $1.65⅞ and July $1.56⅞a.

Export business today was confined to sale of two cargoes of wheat, estimated at around 600,000 bushels for relief shipment to Europe. Sales for the week totaled 3,000,000 bushels

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat futures climbed as much as 2 cents a bushel at times today on buying and short-covering inspired by unconfirmed trade reports that the Pace bill which would increase party prices was receiving some legislative support.

May and July wheat advanced to new seasonal peaks in the upsurge. Rye gained more than a cent a bushel at times with wheat, while corn and oats gains were confined to fractions most of the session.

Wheat closed ⅝ to 2 cents higher, December $1.75⅝, corn was up ⅛ to ⅜, December $1.17¼, oats were unchanged to ½ higher, December 65½, rye was ⅛ to 1⅜ cents up, December $1.53⅜ to $1.53⅝, and barley was ¼ to ⅜ higher, December $1.16½.

Ceremony Sunday Marks Step Down Of Coast Rangers

Part of the Pacific coast Militia Rangers or "Rangers" as they are generally called, who comprised a line of first defence against the Japanese, will be seen during a ceremony at Macdonald Park Sunday at 2.30 p.m.

The ceremony is to honor P.C.M.R. companies on Vancouver Island and adjoining islands from Nanaimo, inclusive south. A ceremony was held in Vancouver Sept. 30 at the Brockton Point Oval, and nearly 2,000 rangers were on parade, representing P.C.M.R. companies east as far as Yale and north as far as Squamish.

Other official ceremonies are being held at Kelowna, Prince George, and where it is possible to give official recognition for the work which has been so well done. At other points where larger official ceremonies are not possible, individual ranger companies are making their own arrangements.

The rangers, 10,000 strong, have been little seen in city areas and much of their work has passed unnoticed, but they would have borne the first brunt of any Japanese invasion on these shores.

Peace Meeting Before Year's End, Byrnes Hopes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the breakdown of the five-power conference in London, State Secretary Byrnes still has hopes for "a truly representative" European peace meeting before the end of the year.

Foreign Commissar Molotov has not rejected the United States proposal for such a conference, Mr. Byrnes said in a radio report to the United States, Friday night. He added he hopes the Soviet Union will agree "that the nations that fought the war—the World War—shall have a chance to make the peace."

Mr. Byrnes strongly emphasized his belief that this means all Allied nations directly involved — not just Russia, Britain and the United States.

Mr. Byrnes officially confirmed that the vital sessions seeking to lay the groundwork for European peace had "closed in a stalemate."

He attributed the major part of the disagreement which split the council on Soviet suspicions that the western Allies actually do not want governments in Bulgaria and Romania which are friendly to the Soviet Union.

"There could be no greater misconception of our attitude," Mr. Byrnes said, adding:

"The American government shares the desire of the Soviet Union to have governments friendly to the Soviet Union in eastern and central Europe. But lasting peace depends not only upon friendship between governments, but on friendship between peoples."

The issue which brought on the division in the council and caused it to fall to accomplish its purpose was whether France and China should participate in writing peace treaties for the Balkan countries.
